Jurassic World (June 12th, 2015) – “Leon, young raptor handler”

Dir. Colin Trevorrow | Executive Producer: Steven Spielberg | Producer: Frank Marshall, Patrick Crowley
Twenty-two years after the events of Jurassic Park, Isla Nublar now features a fully functioning dinosaur theme park, Jurassic World, as originally envisioned by John Hammond. This new park is owned by the Masrani Corporation. Owen (Chris Pratt), a member of Jurassic World's on-site staff, conducts behavioral research on the Velociraptors. After many years, Jurassic World's attendance rates begin to decline and a new attraction created to re-spark visitor interest gravely backfires.

Leon - Leon was new, having replaced another worker who'd either been injured or killed while tending to the animals. He was on duty when Hoskins was watching Owen working with his Velociraptors. When a pig used to feed the raptors got loose inside the pen, Leon attempted to use a noose on the end of a long pole to retrieve the animal before the raptors ate it. He was too late. Although he got the noose around the pig's neck, Echo snatched the pig and jerked it away. Leon, holding onto the pole, got pulled off of the elevated walkway he was standing on and fell into the enclosure with the animals and was immediately surrounded by Blue, Delta, and Charlie, who hissed and snarled fiercely at him. As he scooted away from them, Owen opened the door and entered the paddock, and was able to successfully make the four raptors back down, allowing Leon to make it safely out of the enclosure with the assistance of Barry before leaving, himself. As he sat with his back to the bars of the enclosure, Leon was asked if he was "the new guy" and whether he was aware of his predecessor's fate, which he didn't seem to be. Owen then told him he shouldn't sit with his back to the cage, and, turning, Leon was startled as Delta hissed at him through the bars. Later, when Owen plays the "Hide-And-Seek" with the raptors to track down the Indominus rex, he was seen opening the cage gate.

Leon also appears in the LEGO Jurassic World video game.

“There’s still something ominous troubling Nell, evidenced by ominous visits from her father’s ghost. It’s malevolent Abalam, who follows her around the French Quarter wearing a Mardi Gras mask, prompting birds to dive-bomb into windows, dogs to bark, insects to swarm and voices to emerge from radio static.” –Susan Granger <http://susangranger.com/?p=6925>
